

Thank you for your information request regarding the 2010 summer camp hosting by China Youth Corps.

Please note that we have made some changes for your convenience as following:

1. Health Certificate: Please ask your family doctor for a short note certifying that the child has no special medical care needs; or if parent and participant both sign and indicate on the application form that the child has no any dangerous or contagious diseases.
2. You can pay by either personal check or cashier's check. Please make the check payable to "CYC".
3. If your children want to be assigned in the same group with his/her other friends, please indicate at the note part on the application form. We will make an arrangement to have them in the same group/room.
4. This year, China Airlines provide a special promotion for people who join this summer camp. The promotion code will be provided through email after the application is completed.
